Matusik: The Market

He's back. One of Queensland's primary property researchers, Michael Matusik, Director, Matusik Property Insight, will present his much anticipated annual Queensland property forecast.

With his entertaining and often controversial take on the Queensland market, he is widely recognised as a leading voice on all things property. Highly sought after within the industry, he is a regular voice within the property media, acknowledged for his access to relevant and up to date data as well as his clear, concise evaluations and predictions.

Michael has a significant following with his fortnightly Matusik Snapshot report and his regular Saturday morning spot on ABC radio.

This annual event is always extremely popular, so be sure to book in early to avoid disappointment.
