The Economy with Saul Eslake

UDIA Lunch

In 2008 Saul accurately forecast the global financial storm that was about the leave the shores of the USA and hit the rest of the world.

Each year since, Saul has delivered an accurate economic update that clearly provides his thoughts on the path ahead.

Since 2008 the world's economy has been on a continuous rollercoaster ride with markets rising and receding on the turn of the tide.

With his recent return to the economic forefront as Chief Economist with Bank of America Merrill Lynch, Saul is perfectly positioned to provide his annual in-depth look at the markets as they stand and, most importantly, where he believes they'll be heading in the next 12 months.

This is the must-attend first event for 2012 for anyone looking for an up-to-date preview of the market for the new year.
